MITT ROMNEY
GOVERNOR

KERRY HEALEY
LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

Dear Award Winners:

It gives us great pleasure to acknowledge your exceptional achievements. Your creativity, leadership and enthusiasm make Massachusetts a special place in which to live and work and will be the keys to our success, both as a state and as a nation. We hope that you will continue to feel the pride that comes from knowing that your job, well done, enhances the lives of so many of our fellow citizens.

To recognize excellence in public service, three types of awards are given through Commonwealth's Performance Recognition Program:

Eugene H. Rooney, Jr. Public Service Award for employees who have made a meaningful contribution in the area of human resource development and training;

Manuel Carballo Governor's Award for Excellence in Public Service bestowed on ten individuals, or groups of employees, who have demonstrated outstanding leadership, innovation, and creativity; and the Commonwealth Citation for Outstanding Performance awarded to employees who are honored for their demonstrated exemplary work performance.

We extend our congratulations to the award recipients and thank all of the dedicated public employees who continue to meet their daily challenges with devotion, pride, and a passion for excellence.

Sincerely,
